feel this is difficult or inappropriate, please speak to the staff member's manager or the Deputy Chief Executive.

- If you are unhappy about a service provided by us, please speak to the relevant staff member, manager or Deputy Chief Executive.

Making a Written Complaint - you must make your complaint within 28 days of the matter arising that causes your complaint to the Deputy Chief Executive. (If your complaint is about the Deputy Chief Executive, please write to the Chief Executive.)

- All written complaints will be logged, and you will receive a written acknowledgement within 5 working days.
- Your complaint will be investigated and you will receive a reply within 15 working days, and, where appropriate, you will be informed about how the problem will be addressed. If this is not possible, an interim response will be made informing you of the action taken to date or being considered.
- We will then keep you informed about progress every 15 working days.
- If you are not satisfied with our response, please write to the Chair of the Board of Trustees explaining your outstanding concerns. The timetable, as set out above, will continue to apply.
- If the complaint cannot be resolved, the Chair will report the matter at the next Board of Trustees which will decide on any further steps, as necessary.
